

Museum Acquires a Corot from Rehs Galleries

The Huntington Museum of Art, Huntington, WV, known for its French Barbizon and realist paintings, has acquired an important work by French artist Jean-Baptiste-Camille Corot (1796–1895) from Rehs Galleries Inc., New York. The gallery specializes in 19th and Jean B.C. Corot's "Environs de Mantes, Rencontre au Bord de la Seine," oil painting, 13 3/4 by 9 1/2 inches.

20th century works from artists that exhibited at the Paris Salons and London's Royal Academy. Telephone (212) 355-5710 for details, or visit: www.rehs.com.